ORIGIN STORY

Our name comes from the poem 'A Voyager's Dream of Land' by Felicia Dorothea Hemans, born in our very city and our very street at 118 Duke Street.

She published her first collection, Poems (1808), at the age of 14.

The poem relates to the sentiment of many sailors that passed through our city as well as the history of our location. Felicia Browne was born on September 25, 1793, in Liverpool. She was the fifth of seven children.

*There's a spring in the woods by my sunny home,
Afar from the dark sea's tossing foam;
Oh! the fall of that fountain is sweet to hear,
As a song from the shore to the sailor's ear!*

GERARD BERTRAND WINES

It was in 1975, in the vineyards of Château de Villemajou in the heart of Corbières that Gérard Bertrand harvested his first grapes and discovered his passion for wine.

He perfected his apprenticeship during twelve years with his father Georges Bertrand.

We are now in the fourth generation of winegrowers, from Paule to Georges, then Gérard Bertrand and finally Emma & Mathias.

Gérard Bertrand and his teams are convinced that viticulture in harmony with nature is the best way to bring terroir wines to the highest level of excellence. This method of viticulture produces wines that reflect all the nuances of the terroirs of the South of France.

Biodynamic agriculture is similar to homeopathy for vines. It involves the use of compost and biodynamic plant teas. Biodynamics takes into account all the natural elements surrounding the vineyard and is based on cosmic rhythms.
